Historical Note

Founded on December 8, 1920, the MACCW is a federation of nearly 170 Catholic women's organizations committed to serve the church and society and to develop the gifts and unify the work of Catholic women. The stated goals of the organization are to help women to be a presence in their parish and community and to offer an opportunity for personal and spiritual growth; to stimulate the work of existing Catholic women's organizations to greater service in meeting the issues of the day.

MACCW is part of a larger national organization that United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, the World Union of Catholic Women's Organizations, the United Nations Department of Public Information, Catholic Relief Services, and other national Catholic organizations serving the needs and interests of women and children. The organization remains active and continues to conduct work that is accomplished through seminars, workshops, conventions and opportunities for spiritual formation.

Scope and Content a brief description of the types of materials in the collection.

This collection contains scrapbooks (containing newspaper articles, programs, photos, etc.), convention material (programs, correspondence, annual reports, etc.), newsletters, directories, minutes of board meetings of the MACCW. NewsNotes are also included in the collection; these provide particular insight into the activities of the MACCW locally and places into context work done on a national level.
